Copy of Mr. S. Raghavendra Rao's d.o. to the Dewan.

Mr. Macnaughtie tried to see you on his way to the Club from here yesterday after 4.30 p.m but could not manage it as the cyclone had brought down all the trees down on the road and blocked it. Just before he left he sent me a message which reached about 9.30 p.m last night. He wished me in it to say that H.H. wanted a G.O. in the Gazette (This one if possible) Saying that the Govt of H.H the M.R. deeply regret to learn of the death of Mr Mucklestone, refer briefly to his various services and add that by his death the Court
